

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Firefighter with the City of Mesa. Unfortunately, due to budget constraints, the Mesa Fire Department will not be conducting additional interviews for the position of Firefighter-Recruit at this time. For additional information as it becomes available, you may call Personnel's interactive telephone number (480-644-2365) or visit this website again; for information about the Fire Department or the Candidate Physical Ability Test (CPAT), click on "Living in Mesa", then under the Fire category, choose "Fire training". You may visit your local library to access the internet. Although the next recruitment for Firefighter-Recruit is tentatively scheduled for May 2003, applicants who are on the 2001 Firefighter-Recruit list should advise the Personnel Division at (480) 644-2365 if there is a change in address or contact telephone number during this time.
